

This snowpit at Bridger Bowl was on a shaded ENE aspect at 7,800'. The lower two thirds are mostly sugary, weak facets with a hard crust in the middle. This weak snow is not the best foundation for the winter's snowpack. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Bridger Range
Longitude
-110.92W

Latitude

45.82N

Bridger Range, 2020-11-29