

In shallow areas near rock bands and wind-scoured slopes, we found a more developed weak layer of depth hoar. These shallow areas will be areas of concern when they get loaded by a larger storm or wind event. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Longitude
-109.95W

Latitude
45.06N
Cooke City, 2021-12-19