

We got widespread collapsing and cracking in the upper meadows. The weakest layer is the facets on the ground. Stability tests=CT11,Q2x2; ECTN, 12. We skied 25-28 degree slopes because we were worried about triggering a slide. Photo: Chabot

Advisory Region
Southern Madison
Longitude
-111.10W
Latitude
44.97N
Southern Madison, 2008-12-15