

Doug Chabot standing next to the crown of the avalanche he and his partner remotely triggered. It averaged 3-4 feet deep, was approx. 1,000' wide and 700' vertical. The slope was heavily wind-loaded and was 33 degrees steep. Photo: Ross Lynn

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Cooke City, 2008-12-28