

Gallatin County Search and Rescue responded to search the debris for possible victims. Approximately 40 volunteers were involved including 4 avalanche dogs. A helicopter was used to survey the scene and to ferry several searches and one avalanche dog to another part of the debris. No one was reported missing. No beacon signals were detected. Search dogs did not indicate anyone was buried either. Photo by Ryan Minton

Advisory Region
Bridger Range
Bridger Range, 2010-02-16