

This slide occurred in Wolverine Bowl north of Bridger Bowl. It was a natural avalanche sometime before dawn on 24 Feb and broke on facets near the ground. Heavy snow and strong winds have put a tremendous amount of stress on a very weak snowpack producing natural and human triggered avalanches in the Bridger Range. Photo Graham Turnage

Advisory Region
Bridger Range
Bridger Range, 2012-02-25