

Even though strong winds scoured the west side of Saddle, they left the west side of Sacajawea untouched. This side of Sacajawea is normally scoured to bare rock. As soon as winds increase in the Northern Bridgers, plenty of snow will be available for transport. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Bridger Range
Bridger Range, 2013-02-02