

This slide occurred Monday (Feb 24). It broke at the ground and was triggered by a falling cornice. The debris pile was 6-10 feet deep. We believed this slope avalanched previously this season. Another recent slide can be seen to the right. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Lionhead Range
Longitude
-111.31W

Latitude

44.71N

Lionhead Range, 2014-02-25