

The Rasta Chutes on the south face of Scotch Bonnet have 5 feet of snow on the ground. Four feet of it is sitting on crumbly, faceted depth hoar which is a concern. Triggering avalanches is possible, but getting more difficult as the snowpack gets deeper. Photo: A. Fauver

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Cooke City, 2016-01-17