

Surface hoar (aka. frozen dew) makes an appearance at the Yellowstone Club. It was seen on the ground on many aspects and got covered up by light snowfall. These crystals can become a weak layer when they are buried. Photo: P. Bodalski

Advisory Region
Northern Madison
Northern Madison, 2017-01-02